

TAA Compliance Statement

The Trade Agreements Act (TAA) of 1979 (19 U.S.C. §§ 2501–2581), governs trade agreements between the United States and other countries under the Trade Act of 1974.

In order to be TAA compliant, a product must be made in the USA or a country defined as a "Designated Country" in the Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR), part 25 (Foreign Acquisition).

A majority of the manufacturing cost for all Huddly cameras originates from Designated Countries as per FAR part 25, and our cameras undergo substantial transformation in Designated Countries at our manufacturing sites in Norway and Poland.

All Huddly cameras are TAA compliant as they meet the requirements of the TAA.
